

Volunteer Opportunities

Communications Committee

Chairs: Erica Keagy (gppcma@comcast.net), Bonnie Grant (Bonnie@discoverphl.com)

The Communications Committee is responsible for ensuring chapter news, activities, and important event information is communicated to members on a timely basis.

How You Can Volunteer:

Volunteer to write for the newsletter, or help with editing content

Community Service Committee

Board Liaison: Bonnie Grant (Bonnie@discoverphl.com)

The Community Service Committee builds the connection between the chapter, its members, and the local community through participation in service activities, donation drives, and fundraising efforts for Greater Philadelphia-based charities, non-profits, and community outreach organizations.

How You Can Volunteer:

Assist the committee in researching charities to support, execute the community service events, participate in our events and be a "cheerleader" to greet those who attend and contribute to our mission

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee

Board Liaison: LaShanna Mackay (lashanna.mackey@aacr.org)

The DEI Committee is charged with empowering members of diverse communities and cultures to grow, learn, and thrive within our chapter and industry.

How You Can Volunteer:

This is a new committee in 2022. Volunteers are needed to help with forming the committee and building DEI efforts.

Education Committee

Chair: Kacie Corbett (ksheppeck@gmail.com)

The Education Committee is responsible for planning and executing high-quality education events that promote professional development.

How You Can Volunteer:

Participate in committee meetings to discuss relevant and timely topics for educational events, use your network to research and secure presenters, and help with the execution of live events

Student Committee

Chair: Belinda Harvey (Bharvey@wlgore.com)

The Student Committee provides education and networking opportunities for students.

How You Can Volunteer:

Help organize an education or networking opportunity, serve as a liaison to schools, visit a student event, participate as a guest speaker

Membership Committee

Chairs: Dawn Eagleton (deagleton@mtl.org) and Luke Whalin (lwhalin@myhopskip.com)

The Membership Committee facilitates continued growth of the chapter and ensures that members have an excellent experience so they achieve maximum benefit from their membership.

How You Can Volunteer:

Become a PCMA PHL ambassador at events, send welcome letters and follow up messages, participate in recruitment projects

Social Media Committee

Chair: Kate Young (kateyoung9@gmail.com)

The Social Media Committee supports the chapter's presence on LinkedIn, Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter.

How You Can Volunteer:

Suggest content for posts, help edit posts, keep up with trends and research on how to communicate across various platforms to diverse types of readers, like and share posts

Sponsorship Committee

Chairs: Lisa McGlashen (lisa.mcglashen@aacr.org) and Donna Young (donna.youngx4@gmail.com)

The Sponsorship Committee solicits support dollars for all chapter meetings and events scheduled throughout the year, as well as for the quarterly newsletter.

How You Can Volunteer:

Help find new sponsors, maintain relationships with existing sponsors, promote the organization, refer names/emails of potential sponsors to committee chairs, follow up with potential sponsors
